DOT is an Equal Opportunity Employer

All qualified applicants will be considered regardless of political affiliation, race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, age, disability, or other non-merit factors. DOT provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify us. Decisions on granting reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis.

Why Work For Us? Transportation impacts every facet of American life, providing people access to work, school, loved ones, and nature's rich bounty. The U.S. Department of Transportation is committed to transportation excellence and strives to create the best possible integrated air, land, and sea transportation system for America. As a DOT employee, you will become a part of the dedicated workforce who work day-to-day to make measurable improvements in our transportation system, the security of our nation, and the quality of American life.

The Federal Railroad Administration, an Operating Administration under the Department of Transportation, was created to promote and enforce safety throughout the U.S. railroad system, rehabilitate the Northeast Corridor rail passenger services, consolidate Federal support for rail transportation, and support research and development for rail transportation for passengers, railroad employees and the general public.

Summary Of The Essential Job Functions: As the Railroad Safety Specialist (Track), you will be required to:

- Provide guidance and assistance to FRA and State railroad track safety inspectors in the safe methods for performance of work on and about railroad track and structures.
- Analyze advances in the field of railroad track inspection and maintenance procedures for their effect on safety and recommend changes to the Track Safety Standards when warranted.
- Maintain continuous overview of the application of the Track Safety Standards and the Federal Railroad Workplace Safety Standards by the railroad industry and the application and interpretation of these standards by the regional FRA Track Specialists and Inspectors.
- Under the guidance of the FRA Bridge Engineer, develop and implement safe bridge inspection practices to be used by FRA Track Inspectors who may be required to perform bridge inspections.
- Prepare specialized training materials for use by FRA in training railroad safety inspector personnel in the Federal Railroad Workplace Safety Program.
- Serve as liaison with high-ranking officials of railroad corporations, rail industry and labor associations, and other Federal, State and local government agencies to exchange information and views.
- Conduct, participate or lead special investigations of railroad accidents and incidents.
- Prepare written reports of contacts and committee activities and modify the Railroad Workplace Safety Compliance Manual and similar directives.

What Are The Minimum Qualifications For This Position?

You must have at least one year of specialized experience in or directly related to the essential job functions described above. For Federal employees this experience must have been at the next lower grade level. If you want us to consider experience you obtained outside the Federal Government, it must have been at that same level of complexity. The specialized experience must demonstrate:

- Broad knowledge of the railroad industry including economic and operating considerations and equipment.
- Knowledge of the general safety and health principles and practices applicable to the railroad industry.
- Knowledge of railroad accident investigation techniques.
- Skill in written and oral communication.
- Knowledge of railroad track system construction, maintenance, testing or inspection techniques.
- Comprehensive knowledge of the Federal railroad track safety standards.

What Are The Required Knowledge, Skills And Abilities For This Job?

- Expert knowledge of railroad track maintenance and inspection procedures in order to disseminate information and ensure uniform application of rules and regulations, including the Railroad Workplace Safety Standards.
- Ability to provide expert advice to headquarters and field personnel, and to persons outside the government, in all areas of track design, construction and maintenance and bridge inspections.
- Ability to communicate effectively in writing.
- Ability to effectively deal with the railroad industry, labor unions, the general public and state and local governments on matters relating to track and structures.
- Ability to make presentations in one-on-one and group settings.

How Will The Qualified Applicants Be Further Evaluated And Rated To

Identify The Best Qualified? If you are basically qualified for this job, you will be further evaluated on the quality and extent of your total accomplishments, experience and education related to the knowledge, skills and abilities listed above. We also may consider your performance appraisal, awards, and relevant training. Your ranking will measure the degree to which your background matches the demands of this position.

What Employee Benefits Do We Provide? The Federal Government offers excellent benefits, flexible work schedules and family-friendly programs. You will receive paid annual leave and sick leave. This is a permanent position and you will be eligible for retirement, health insurance, life insurance and Long Term Care insurance. A brief summary of the Federal benefits for permanent employees can be found at www.usajobs.opm.gov/EI61.htm.

Before You Go Any Further, Here Are Some Other Things You Need to Know

- United States citizenship is required. (Proof of citizenship will be required to be shown upon appointment.)
- Applicants must meet the qualification requirements by the closing date of the announcement. Federal applicants also must meet the time-in-grade requirements by the closing date of the announcement.

- If an FRA employee is selected, travel and transportation expenses will be paid if the selection results in a promotion OR for a geographical reassignment if the FRA selectee occupies a position that has significantly different duties from that of this position vacancy. If a candidate outside FRA is selected, travel and transportation expenses will not be paid.
- The FRA has determined that seniority rights, leaves of absence, and reemployment rights generally constitute an actual or an appearance of a conflict of interest. New employees may be required to divest themselves of such rights immediately upon hire if these rights are determined to constitute an actual or appearance of a conflict of interest. If new employees are permitted to retain such rights, which is generally the case for Railroad Safety positions, the rights must be divested at the end of the one year probationary period. No waivers of this requirement will be granted.
- If selected, you will be subject to the Standards of Ethical Conduct applicable to all DOT employees.
- FRA employees are prohibited from owning railroad stock, except, under certain circumstances, as part of a diversified mutual fund.
- Applicants with “competitive status” as current or former Federal Government employees may be given first consideration.

How To Apply For This Position

- You must submit your current Resume or an OF-612 (Optional Application for Federal Employment). You may choose which form to submit provided it contains all required information. Required information is listed in the section below labeled “Here’s What Your Application Must Contain.” The OF-612 is available on the Office of Personnel Management website at www.usajobs.opm.gov under Forms.
- For maximum consideration, tell us how you meet the "Knowledge, Skills and Abilities (KSAs)" for this position by providing narrative statements for each KSA. The KSAs for this position are found above.
- Federal applicants must submit a complete performance appraisal. It must be current – meaning it was issued to you within the past year – and it must be official – meaning it appraises your performance over a normal rating cycle in your present job and has been signed by your supervisor. If you are unable to submit your current performance appraisal, please tell us why. You also must submit a copy of your latest SF-50 "Notification of Personnel Action" that reflects career or career-conditional tenure.
- To be considered for selection priority under the Career Transition Assistance Program (CTAP) or the Interagency Career Transition Assistance Program (ICTAP), you must submit appropriate certification that you are eligible. In addition, you must be determined to be well-qualified for the position. Well-qualified applicant: An eligible applicant who meets all qualifications, standards, and eligibility requirements for the position, including medical qualifications; minimum educational and experience requirements; selective placement factors; knowledge, skills, and abilities (KSAs); quality ranking factors; and any other special qualifying conditions, and is able to satisfactorily perform the duties of the position upon entry.

- The "Area of Consideration" section shown on the first page indicates who may apply for this position. All United States citizens may apply. Candidates may be eligible to be considered three ways: as a current or former Federal Government employee with "status;" as a "nonstatus" candidate (candidates with no prior Federal Government service); and as a candidate eligible for a special appointment authority. You must submit a complete application package for each type of consideration you are eligible and wish to be considered. You also must submit appropriate proof of your eligibility as a status candidate and as a candidate eligible for a special appointment authority, including your eligibility for veteran preference.

Where To Send Your Application
